

THE BIG VAN & SCHENCK SONG
LIBERTY BOND
MAGEE

by
CHARLES McNAUGHTON AND JOHN BARCLAY

KERRY & MILLS
207 W. 48th St. New York

Liberty Bond Magee

Words & Music

By CHARLES McNAUGHTON &
JOHN BARCLAY

Marcia

Piano

f

S

A So

mp

p

friend of mine named Mike Mc Gee, Was wed a year last May, — And Mike Mc Gee sailed far a - way And fought for Un - cle Sam, — Got when the U. S. A., — Said he must go a - way, — He Frit - zie in a jam, — He did - nt give a d - -, — He said my coun - try's call - ing me, To go I'm sim - ply wild, — When heard from wif - ie one fine day, It filled his heart with joy, — The pa - tri - ot - ic Wif - ie said "What shall we name the child?"

 let - ter said I love you Mike You ought to see the boy.

rit.

Chorus

So they christ-ened the ba - by Chat - eau Thi - er - ry, Ver - dun, K. of (Shat - to) a tempo. p-f

C. — Hoo - ver, Persh - ing, Haig, Cle - men - ceau, Bel - gium, Foch, Pa - ree, Al - so (so.) (Fosh.)

La - fay - ette, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Par - lez - vous yp - res.
 (Par - ly - voo yee - pree.)

Wil - son, Royce, At - a - boy, Lib - er - ty Bond Mc Gee. So they gee.

1. 2.

f D.S.

TEACH ME TO BE A BRAVE SOLDIER

One Like My Daddy is Now

This is the song that just has a smattering of the war, but you will notice how delicately it is done.

Word and Music
KERR MILLS

[illegible]

Snooky Hollow

The season's best Trot.
It is by KERRY MILLS,
the man who wrote the Barn Dance, Georgia Campmeeting, Red Wing, etc.